1. On 7 April 1950 it was learned that the Labor Union House (formerly Deutsches Haus Hotel), Kuehlungsborn (H 55/062), would be taken over for police billets in May 1950. About 300 VP officers to be accommodated there would activate a new VP unit of several thousand men in Kuehlungsborn. The unit will allegedly be trained with machine guns and mortars, with the training scheduled to be completed by the 1950 Whitsun holidays (late May 1950).
2. It was said that the sections of the cantonment buildings to serve as police quarters were on their way to Kuehlungsborn on the day of observation.
